Employee of the Year 2014 Named; Others Honored for Service

Cindy Davenport was named Employee of the Year 2014 at a recent reception at the University of Georgia College of Pharmacy. She was also recognized for five years of service, as an administrative associate I for the Regulatory Affairs and Clinical Trials program at the Gwinnett campus.

Davenport provides support for the administration and maintenance of the UGA BioPharma Regulatory Affairs Graduate Education Programs. She also maintains and updates all computerized files for the department, equipment inventory and library databases. She is the procurement cardholder for Regulatory Affairs for purchasing office supplies for department, conference registrations, periodical renewals, teleconference costs, processing orders and travel documents.

Her letter of recommendation cited her attention to details, inviting attitude, accuracy and efficiency, atmosphere of respect and good judgment.

Others honored for their service to the College were: five years - Leah Costyn, research professional I, PBS; Janet Fowler, administrative associate II, Experience Programs; Susan Herda, admissions counselor I, Student Affairs; and Wei Jia, research professional II, PBS; and 10 years - Renee Dobbs, student affairs professional; and Linda Duncan, lab tech II, PBS.
