April 18, 2014
Lead Dawg Award Recipients

Four third-year students at the University of Georgia College of Pharmacy have been chosen as recipients of the 2014 Lead Dawg award, which recognizes Pharm.D. students who are serving as leaders, in the broadest sense of the term. Students can be nominated by fellow students, faculty, or staff within the College. From left are Ian Dunne, Chioma Enyinnah, Nirali Naik and Leah Stowers.